An Invitation to Attend?

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the executive and technical committee, I am honored to invite you to actively support and participate at 6th Annual GCC Shutdowns, Turnarounds and Outages Technical Conference 2024 which will be held from 28th - 30th May 2024 at Grand Hyatt AlKhobar - Saudi Arabia

As turnaround managers continue to struggle with decreased budgets and less staff to complete projects, it's more important than ever before to know how to gain efficiencies and learn new ways to tackle the challenges of increasingly complex turnarounds.

The STOT ME 2024 is one event you can't afford to miss, where the major players in the turnaround community gather to exchange information, compare processes, and learn from others who have been through times of volatility and unprecedented change. Get techniques you won't find anywhere else as you interact with industry experts,

This year the conference will include topics such as:

- Scope management and how to avoid scope creep
- The Role of Inspection in Turnaround Planning & Execution
- Cost management strategies for on-budget projects
- Creating Consistency to Better Predict Costs & Schedule
- Effective leadership skills in times of uncertainty
- Increase your TAR efficiency and effectiveness with the Oracle TAR solution
- Best practices and tools for improved employee development

Your team will benefit from the networking, the knowledge sharing, and the collaborative approach to achieving success.

I look forward to seeing you in capacity to support the initiative as speakers, sponsors, exhibitors and contributing delegates to make this a truly valuable exchange for our industry.

I look forward to welcoming you to the 6th Annual GCC Shutdowns, Turnarounds and Outages Technical Conference 2024 at Grand Hyatt AlKhobar - Saudi Arabia
